Responding to Pro-Abortion Politicians

If you've ever written to a pro-abortion politician about the right to life, you've probably received a form letter that utilizes this worn-out argument: "I support women's rights and health." Our response should be: That is precisely why you should examine the evidence, which is more plentiful than ever, that abortion is destructive of women's health, and listen to the growing voices of those who have been harmed by abortion (see www.AbortionTestimonies.com).

That is also why you should examine how the abortion industry, through unregulated and dangerous clinics, continues to deceive and exploit women. - Ten Responses to Pro-Abortion Politicians, Prolife Leader Frank Pavone, National Director, Priests for Life. www.EndAbortion.US

Cemetery of the Innocents

Over the past few years, a method has been developed to enable our highly valued volunteers to install this eye-catching, thought-provoking display of 3000+ crosses on the lawn of Dr. Bill and Mrs. Joyce Godfrey in only 2-4 hours. Essential to this accomplishment is the marking of each crosses' position prior to installation day, which will be October 26th this year.

Over the next two weeks a small team of 2 - 4 people, working around the weather and lawn mowing schedule will be engaged in this activity. Should you see them working, please feel free to stop by and observe them or even join in their work. Qualifications for this volunteer work are: attention to detail, patience, and stubborn persistence. Qualified applicants are most welcome.

What is ADVENT BY Candlelight anyway?

Advent by Candlelight is an evening of prayer, reflection, friendship, and elegant beauty, hosted by women of our parish for women of our parish. Gathering together from mid-afternoon to early evening, this mini-retreat serves as an "Advent Interruption", giving women of all ages an opportunity to pray, reflect on the season, and connect with old & new friends. The evening includes:

- Key note talks from this year's speaker, Mrs. Margaret Schay
- Opportunity for personal reflection & group discussions
- Catered dinner from "Back Home" plus homemade breads & desserts
- Eucharistic Adoration, Benediction, & opportunity for Confession

About our Speaker:

Margaret Schay, a lifelong Kentuckian (with a 7 year stint in Georgia) was raised in Gethsemane, KY by parents strongly committed to and involved in the pro-life movement. She and her husband moved to Nelson County, Ky. in 2015 and moved to Louisville in 2021. Margaret and Mike have 3 children on earth and 3 babies in heaven. Margaret's favorite things to do include hiking with her family, French cooking, hosting and entertaining, and learning about the depth of the human person. Margaret became the Executive Director of Right to Life of Louisville in May of 2024.

Kentucky & Surrounding States

Parents and Children deserve educational options.

Every state surrounding Kentucky, along with forty-eight of fifty states, has multiple educational opportunities and programs. These programs help cover the cost of non-public school educational opportunities for eligible families and sometimes cover educational expenses beyond classroom education, including special needs therapies, textbooks, and technology. Kentucky has no educational choice program, but efforts are underway to change that. The 2024 General Assembly passed a Kentucky Constitution Amendment bill, and the Amendment will be on the November 5, 2024 ballot for voter approval.

Opposition and Reality

OPPOSITION - “The amendment takes money away from public schools.”

REALITY - This criticism is generally so vague that it is difficult to understand how it takes money from public schools. The constitution remains unchanged concerning the mandate for the state to fund public schools adequately. The amendment allows, not requires, for funding “in addition to, not instead of” funding for public schools.

OPPOSITION - “Public dollars are only for public schools.”

REALITY - Public funds go to private hospitals, grocery stores, housing buildings, childcare centers, and universities across the Commonwealth. These funds include Pell Grants, KEES money, Tuition Equalization Grants, pre-K programs, the GI Bill, Food Stamps, Medicaid, Section 8, and Social Security. These aren’t public funds either; they come from the taxpayers’ wallets.

OPPOSITION - “The amendment does not require accountability of any new programs.”

REALITY - Ultimately, accountability is to the parents for academic achievement; parents will choose a different school if poor academic performance persists. The constitution “as is” also does not require accountability; accountability is an administrative issue, not a constitutional issue. Therefore, the amendment does not change the existing accountability structure.

OPPOSITION - “The amendment will take children out of public schools.”

REALITY - If a child leaves a public school, it is likely not meeting the parent/student needs. Second, if a student’s needs are being met, there would be no need to change. Nationally, about 87% of students remain in public schools. Public schools will continue to play a significant role in our society.

OPPOSITION - “An amendment opens the door for school programs that do not address all the special needs of children.”

REALITY - The amendment allows the legislature to create a program that gives parents the most flexibility to choose a school that best meets their child’s needs.

OPPOSITION – “We do not need a constitutional amendment.”

REALITY - In a December 2022 court decision on a school choice program, the Kentucky Supreme Court strongly suggested putting a constitutional amendment before the people of Kentucky to settle the issue. This particular section of the constitution has not been changed in 133 years, when education was being delivered in a one-room schoolhouse. Parents need and deserve choice.
