“Peace requires before all else the defense of life, a good that today is jeopardized not only by conflicts, hunger and disease, but all too often even in the mother’s womb, through the promotion of an alleged “right to abortion.”

No one, however, can claim rights over the life of another human being, especially one who is powerless and thus completely defenceless. For this reason, I appeal to the consciences of men and women of good will, particularly those having political responsibilities, to strive to safeguard the rights of those who are weakest and to combat the throwaway culture that also, tragically, affects the sick, the disabled and the elderly. States have a primary responsibility to ensure that citizens are assisted in every phase of human life, until natural death, and to do so in a way that makes each feel accompanied and cared for, even in the most delicate moments of his or her life.” – Address of Pope Francis to Members of the Diplomatic Corps Accredited to the Holy See – January 9, 2023

Jesus is revealed as the Good Shepherd, who fulfills Psalm 23 in all its promises, precisely through the Paschal Mystery. The Shepherd leads the sheep to life, and this is how Christ defines his ministry. “I came so that they may have life, and have it more abundantly.”

In order to have it more abundantly, that is, unto the resurrection of the dead and having a seat on God’s throne, we must first “have it.” Natural life is the necessary precondition for supernatural life, and therefore the defense of natural life is necessarily an aspect of the proclamation of the gift of supernatural life and the mission of the Church to lead people to it.

In a culture of death, the preaching of Peter about repentance, found in today’s first reading, has a particular significance in rejecting abortion and euthanasia, individually and collectively, as well as the mindset behind them. These evils are not simply the destruction of life but the direct, legally-enshrined denial of its inherent worth.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER A LOT OF NERVE

Peter, the apostle who had denied knowing Jesus before he died, now comes out and accuses the crowd of killing Jesus. Considering that he was outnumbered three thousand to one, it took a lot of nerve. So the Spirit gave him the courage to face that crowd. He asked them to repent, but not just profess a rejection of sin. What we call repentance, in Peter's time meant a change of heart away from sin and toward a new way of acting or believing. We too can make a change of heart. We can turn away from selfishness and begin to love as Jesus did. We can relinquish anger and begin to forgive. We can put aside fear and boldly proclaim our faith.

Peter also shows us another gift of the Spirit—the ability to suffer for doing good. That also takes a lot of nerve. It's hard enough to suffer for our sins. Yet that is just what Jesus did for us. Following the example of Jesus on the cross, we accept the suffering that comes to us. It may be ridicule for expressing our faith, the pain of losing someone we love, or the eventual pain of dying ourselves. We accept pain because we love the Lord and so love others enough to bear the pain of helping them. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to help us repent from selfishness to live a new life of love for God and our neighbor. Tom Schmidt

CUARTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA
MUCHO VALOR

Pedro, el apóstol que había negado conocer a Jesús antes de su muerte, ahora se presenta y acusa a la multitud de haber matado a Jesús. Considerando que estaba en minoría, con tres mil personas en su contra, se requirió mucho valor. El Espíritu le dio el coraje para enfrentarse a esa multitud. Les pidió que se arrepintieran, pero no solo que profesaran un rechazo al pecado. Lo que hoy llamamos arrepentimiento, en tiempos de Pedro significaba un cambio de corazón, alejándose del pecado y dirigiéndose hacia una nueva forma de actuar o creer. Nosotros también podemos experimentar un cambio de corazón. Podemos dejar atrás el egoísmo y comenzar a amar como Jesús. Podemos abandonar la ira y comenzar a perdonar. Podemos dejar de lado el miedo y proclamar la fe con valentía.

Pedro también nos muestra otro don del Espíritu: la capacidad de sufrir por hacer el bien. Eso también requiere mucho valor. Ya es bastante difícil sufrir por nuestros pecados. Sin embargo, eso fue precisamente lo que Jesús hizo por nosotros. Siguiendo el ejemplo de Jesús en la cruz, aceptamos el sufrimiento que nos llega. Puede ser el menosprecio por expresar la fe, el dolor de perder a un ser querido o el dolor final de nuestra propia muerte. Aceptamos el dolor porque amamos al Señor y, por lo tanto, amamos a los demás lo suficiente como para soportar el dolor de ayudarlos. Pidamos al Espíritu Santo que nos ayude a arrepentirnos del egoísmo y a vivir una nueva vida de amor a Dios y al prójimo. Tom Schmidt

Saint Mark the Evangelist

Saint Mark wrote the Gospel of Mark about Jesus' life.
Pax tibi Marce means,
"Peace be with you, Mark, my Evangelist."

Why does that lion have wings?
The winged lion is a symbol of Saint Mark. It is often used in Christian art and is associated with the Gospel of Mark.
