Costume Etiquette for All Saints Day/Character Dress Up/Career Dress Up

Rules - Character/ Career costumes should emphasize appropriateness and discourage demonic or overly revealing costumes that are contrary to Catholic values. Students are encouraged to bring a copy of the book where their character is found.

- No Villains
- No Masks - Must be able to identify the person
- No Fake Weapons
- No gory or gruesome costumes
- Shorts or Skirts must meet dress code length (2 inches above the knee)
- No alcohol/Tobacco/Drug themes
- No midriffs, visible undergarments or low cut tops
- No Inflatable Costumes
- Student must be able to easily use the restroom by themselves
- Regular socks and shoes are to be worn if student has PE or recess
- All students should bring a change of clothes in the event their costume is deemed inappropriate for school.

Examples of Appropriate Characters Include:

Any Saint, A Priest, A Nun, A firefighter, A teacher, A police officer, A good superhero, A Nurse, A Doctor, Princess Elsa, Robin Hood, A Knight, Harry Potter, Clifford the Big Red Dog, Babe Ruth, Charlie Brown, Coraline, Lilo, Stitch, Jessie from Toy Story, Caitlin Clark, Belle, Dorothy

Examples of Inappropriate Characters Include:

Any Villain, Darth Vader, Ursula, Freddy Krueger, Chainsaw Massacre, Car Accident Victim, Dr. Doom, Evil Witch, Lord Voldemort, A slain animal from a story, Adolf Hitler, Specters

*Please don't dress like Jesus. Pick another person from the bible.

Preschool considerations: Costumes must allow the child to easily walk and utilize the restroom (on their own), play on the playground, sit and nap comfortably.